WHO KNEW?
Alcohol and other drug use during college affect your future career options

Many professions require licensing or certification from a board or a committee. A person’s alcohol and other drug use may interfere with obtaining these requirements.

Maine laws that if violated could interfere with future career options:

- Under 21: No one under 21 is permitted to possess, purchase, or consume alcohol or marijuana.
- Drug Paraphernalia: It is a civil violation to possess any drug paraphernalia. It is a crime to furnish/transfer drug paraphernalia to someone else.
- Transporting alcohol: No person under the age of 21 is permitted to transport alcohol in a motor vehicle unless in the scope of their employment or with parental permission.
- Furnishing alcohol: No person may furnish, sell, or provide alcohol or a place to consume to someone under 21.
- OUI: All states are “zero tolerance” states; any person under 21 with any amount of alcohol in their system who operates or attempts to operate a vehicle can be charged with Operating Under Influence (OUI) and will have their license suspended for one year.

Operating a vehicle under the influence of marijuana and other substances that cause impairment can also result in a charge of (OUI).
